

Sidewalk cafés are an institution in Europe and Cafe Cordova has become St. Augustine's fashionable spot to see and be seen while enjoying the sights and sounds of historic downtown.

With indoor and outdoor seating overlooking breathtaking examples of St. Augustine's Mediterranean revival-style architecture and the city's plaza, guests enjoy light breakfasts, lunches, and snacks or even late-night gatherings following dinner or a theater performance.

A more casual extension of Chef Nyfeler's concept for 95 Cordova and Cobalt Lounge, the ever-expanding New World selections include hand-tossed gourmet pizzas; signature sandwiches, soups, and salads; tempting house-made desserts, pastries, and cookies; wines by the glass or bottle from 95 Cordova's extensive wine list; coffee, and cappuccino; herbal, black, and green teas; specialty chocolates; fruit juices; and more. All items are available for takeout as well, making this the perfect stop to assemble the makings for a gourmet picnic in the plaza or at the beach.
